Novi Oaks Charter Chapter
Novi, Michigan

President’s Message
Another year is almost over and we are 20 years into this century! The year 2020 will be huge in a lot of ways, starting on Wednesday, January 8th, with the Novi Oaks 30-Year Anniversary celebration. Our founder, Bettie Archer Johnson, loved ABWA to her core, and we are glad that she was a go-getter and founded the Novi Oaks Charter Chapter on January 29, 1990.

On January 8th, we will reminisce a little, but we are mostly looking forward to the next 30 years as we provide opportunities for our members to grow their business knowledge and build long-lasting relationships.

In addition to our celebration, we will welcome Karen Ebben, an advertising and marketing effectiveness specialist, who will speak to us about today’s Girl Scouts. We have invited some of the Girl Scouts from Novi High School to join us that night, and a few of our Novi Oaks members will be bringing their own award sashes to show off. We hope it will be the beginning of a long relationship with these young women.

February marks the beginning of our next 4-part speaker series – Business & Personal Growth. Fliers on all four speakers can be found on page 9-12 and online, so please refer potential members to our website at www.novi-abwa.org.

Regina C. Hall will start us off on February 12th with “How to develop successful thinking” for our leadership journeys. Please join us that night and invite other women who may benefit from ABWA.

Best wishes for a blessed holiday season. Update your calendar with the dates shown below, and we will see you in 2020!

Marcia Green
2019-2020 Chapter President

The mission of the American Business Women’s Association is to bring together businesswomen of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support, and national recognition.
Novi Oaks Charter Chapter finishes out 2019

The first five months of the 2019-2020 ABWA year have been busy ones for Novi Oaks. The bulk of August was spent getting ready for our one major fundraiser, the 15th Annual Autumn Bruch With Auction, which was held at the Sheraton Four Points Hotel in Novi on Saturday, September 21. We welcomed almost 160 attendees, and raised just over $10,600 for our scholarship and education fund. Thank you to all of the members who worked so hard on obtaining auction items and inviting guests to make our auction a success!

The chapter voted to offer two $2,000 Impact scholarships through the ABWA national Stephen Bufton Memorial Educational Fund (SBMEF), and a $1,000 Bettie Archer Johnson scholarship at Madonna University.

As part of the education of our own members, we will also offer reimbursement to active members for attending the ABWA Central Regional Conference and the National Women’s Leadership Conference. See pages 3-5 for more details on these conferences and member reimbursement guidelines.

In September, we kicked off the fall membership campaign with our 4-part speaker series – Finding Total Life Balance:

- Vickie Gould presented, “Saying Yes to You and Leaving the Guilt Behind” in October.
- Zonya Foco presented, “Eat to Succeed” in November.

We recently welcomed two new members to our chapter: Hillary Hentschel (pictured first below) and Becky Fox (second picture below). Recruiting Becky took Betty Shultz to the second, Emerald level of the Inner Circle (22 members recruited), and she has been acknowledged in the current issue of the ABWA Achieve newsletter. Chris Struwe is Hillary’s sponsor, and Chris is nearing the 44-member level of the Inner Circle. Congratulations, Betty and Chris, and welcome to ABWA, Hillary and Becky! We hope your membership will bring you many rewarding experiences, and we look forward to getting to know you better.

If anyone wants to join ABWA, she (or he) may simply click on the link at the top right of our web page (www.novi-abwa.org) to join. National dues are $115, and a student membership costs $50 per year. Our local chapter dues are $24 per year, due August 1, which are prorated for members who join mid-year. ABWA is an excellent value for the low cost of membership! Speaking of value, ABWA National has announced that from January 2- January 31, members can sign up for the complimentary 5S workplace productivity course in the school of lean on the Apex Campus. (Only complimentary if you sign up during this period.) Questions? Contact Marcia Green at mgreenABWA@gmail.com.

Members and guests enjoyed the lively presentation, “Eat to Succeed,” by celebrity nutritionist, Zonya Foco (center front), on November 13. Just in time for the holidays!

ABWA National – A little background and News!

Executive Director Rene’ Street and the ABWA National staff are busy working on the plans for our 2020 national conferences.

ABWA is made up of six districts, and the regional conferences in the spring are made up of two districts each.

Our own District V is made up of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia. District III is made up of nine states to the west of us, and their members will join us for our Central Regional Conference, to be held on March 26-28, 2020, at the Brown Hotel in Louisville, KY. Full agendas and details about the presentations and locations for the three regional conferences are on the next 2 pages (from issue 6 of the ABWA Achieve Newsletter).

The National Women’s Leadership Conference (NWLC) will be held at the Westin Hotel in Westminster, Colorado on October 14-17, 2020. This larger conference features:

- great keynote speakers and entertainment
- election of national officers
- Chapter Best Practices Awards
- luncheon featuring the national Top Ten
- selection and announcement of the American Business Woman of ABWA

Members attend classes, and some will graduate from the Park University’s “Women as 21st Century Leaders” program and others from the business-related programs by the University of Kansas (both 4-year programs).

The Novi Oaks Charter Chapter has voted to reimburse its members for the registration fees for the ABWA Regional Conference and/or National Women’s Leadership Conference. To be eligible to receive such funds, a member must be active and in good standing (National and Chapter dues paid) for at least six months prior to attending. “Active” for newer members means attending at least four out of six of the meetings or special events during the previous six months. For longer-term members, “Active” means working on committees or serving as an officer, and participating in at least two thirds of chapter meetings and special events in the previous twelve months. Attendance at EMC meetings counts toward this requirement.

Step out of your comfort zone and join us at a conference. Appropriately, our new ABWA theme for 2020 is . . . .

CENTRAL REGIONAL CONFERENCE
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY - MARCH 26-28

BREAKTHROUGH CRITICAL THINKING

In today’s fast pace-business environment, you may be faced with countless challenges and problems, and find it difficult to develop adequate solutions. It’s a common dilemma, yet it can be solved.

Now, more than ever, you need to be able to clearly work through problems using critical thinking skills. In this course, you’ll be equipped with practical tools and techniques that can be used immediately in your workplace.

Learning Objectives
- Define and recognize the value of critical thinking
- Explain the basic concepts of critical thinking
- Discuss how to become a critical thinker
- Describe how to apply critical thinking to problem solving
- Distinguish between facts and assumption
- Summarize critical thinking for problem solving and idea generation at work and in ABWA!

Presenter: Marianne Friedlund

Marianne has combined her management experience with her knowledge of training and sales to fuel a fascinating career spanning more than two decades. She has been called the trainer whose sheer presence at the podium makes the day special. While Marianne trains on topics such as assertive communication and conflict resolution, her expertise lies in training on management topics including supervision, teambuilding and leadership.

WESTERN REGIONAL CONFERENCE
SUGAR LAND, TEXAS - APRIL 2-4

EFFECTIVE TEAMWORK STRATEGIES

In nearly all jobs, you’ll find yourself working with other individuals. Though it’s seldom considered, teamwork doesn’t just happen automatically. The transformation of a group of individuals into a team takes work.

This course covers the fundamentals of team dynamics, cohesion and cooperation. You’ll get the best research related to each of those areas and be challenged to apply those concepts to your team through exercises, discussions and games. You’ll also learn

BSTR (BUSINESS SKILLS TUITION REIMBURSEMENT)

If your league contributed a minimum of $500 to SBMEF in the 2018-2019 Award Year, you are eligible to sponsor a BSTR scholarship up to $125 per person.
the important behaviors for participating in an effective team, including communication, conflict resolution, and decision making.

Learning Objectives
- Apply teamwork fundamentals to develop and maintain effective high-performing teams
- Bring teams together
- Commit to a culture of cooperation
- Build a positive, highly motivated team
- Confront conflicts with confidence
- Facilitate, listen and work with others to solve problems and make good decisions.

Session value (.6 CEUs)

Presenter: Anne Bonney
Anne is a fun trainer who is energetic and inspirational and models confidence and composure. She enjoys motivating her audiences and this really shows, no matter what the topic. She loves to empower people through personal achievement and wellness. Anne has spent several years as an instructor in varying industries where she had motivated audiences both domestically and internationally with keynotes and workshops on a wide range of topics. Her positivity and knowledge will give attendees the take-aways that they can use in the workplace and in ABWA!

EASTERN REGIONAL CONFERENCE
DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA - APRIL 23-25

UNCONSCIOUS BIAS AND INCLUSION
The brain is naturally inclined to make generalizations…some true, some false, some good, and some bad. When generalizations might result in stereotypes and biases, we instead have the power to self-regulate to foster more positive connections, allowing individuals to communicate confidently with one another.

This course uses positive psychology and relevant research to teach learners how unconscious biases form and what to do when they have an unconscious bias or target of someone else’s unconscious bias.

Learning Objectives
- Recognize the value of questioning certainty as they take steps to confront unconscious bias
- Gain insights to how the brain works, how biases develop and why they’re bad for business, the workplace and ABWA
- Understand the fundamentals of cognitive psychology and how to avoid errors caused by automatic thinking
- Explore the power of the brain to undo flawed or biased thinking and provide more freedom of thought
- Eliminate stereotypes using five research-based strategies
- Investigate the costs and benefits associated with inclusive thinking and behavior.

Presenter: LaVeer Jovel
For nearly 20 years, LaVeer Jovel has devoted her professional life to helping organizations be more efficient and effective by providing exceptional training. She has developed programs specifically to address change management, emotional intelligence, coaching, conflict management, workplace harassment, and many other topics. Prior to starting her training and consulting organization, LaVeer was employed as a human resource manager developing internal training programs for Smiths Aerospace, which is now part of GE Aviation Systems.
